

Questions 181–185 refer to the following e-ticket and receipt.

This is Alex J. Snyder's one-way e-ticket. This ticket was purchased at farecuts.com.

Outbound: Thursday, February 17, Singapore Budget Airlines, Flight SB343

From: Changi International
Terminal: International B

Departs: 7:20 a.m.
Gate: 2

Scheduled stopover: Tokyo International
Transfer planes: No

Arrives: 3:00 p.m.
Departs: 5:20 p.m.

To: San Francisco International
Terminal: 3

Arrives: 10:30 a.m.
Gate: To be announced

Economy Class
Seat: Check-in required
Smoking: No

Total : $1034.24 USD

(For domestic flights please arrive at the airport 2 hours in advance; for international flights, 5 hours in advance.)

Please print and retain a copy of this e-ticket receipt. Your receipt may be required as proof of your return ticket.

Your confirmation # is: 33499t7U.

An e-ticket has been issued to Alex J. Snyder for flight SB343 from Singapore to San Francisco.

From: SIN Departs 7:20 a.m. 02/17/20—
To: SFO Arrives 10:30 a.m. 02/18/20—

Ticket # 90799098
Issuing agent: Fare Cuts Travel
Date issued: January 14, 20—
Form of Payment: Credit card
Fare: $921.30
Transportation tax: $112.94
Booking fee: None

Your e-ticket and your e-ticket receipt will be viewable online for 90 days.

181. Where is this customer's final destination?

- (A) Tokyo
- (B) Singapore
- (C) San Francisco
- (D) Unknown

182. How many airplanes will the customer take to get to his final destination?

- (A) 1
- (B) 2
- (C) 3
- (D) 4

183. What travel information is not yet available?

- (A) The departure time from Singapore
- (B) The flight number for transferring in Tokyo
- (C) The gate number at San Francisco
- (D) The total flying time to San Francisco

184. Why will Mr. Snyder probably not need to show his e-ticket receipt?

- (A) He only has a one-way ticket.
- (B) He paid by credit card.
- (C) He is a frequent traveler.
- (D) He's traveling within 90 days.

185. How did the traveler book his flight?

- (A) He went into a tour agency.
- (B) He called an airline company.
- (C) He went into an airport.
- (D) He logged onto a website.

Go on to the next page.