Set out on a journey to explore emotions around the world

Our very first SEL reader series!

A Dutch boy who lags behind everyone else actually possesses strengths that others overlook, including himself. A young Māori girl struggles with her peers mispronouncing her name, but her family's warmth helps her find the courage to embrace her identity.

Heartwarming stories like these make up our latest Feel the World series centered on social-emotional learning (SEL). Through these stories, children will not only improve their English skills but also develop emotional awareness and empathy for themselves and others.

Noah and the Missing Tulips

Our heartwarming stories, certified by a child psychologist, help children learn to navigate difficult emotions from a young age.

Each book comes with a SEL mini game, providing a fun way to practice SEL skills and increase emotional awareness.

Exercise Your Grammar 2nd Edition

Authors: Annie Chan / Joyce Chang /
Anfan Shih / Jane M. Chai
CEFR: A1-A2

Use grammar in a real-life context!

Exercise Your Grammar is a six-level comprehensive series for young learners. It aims at giving young students a clear idea of grammatical structure and helping them build a strong English language foundation. It can be used independently or as supplementary classroom material.

- ▶ Each grammar rule is introduced in a real-life context at the beginning of the unit, helping students exercise the grammar in a contextual way.
- ▶ Exercise Your Grammar provides concise grammar coverage, varied and creative exercises, and communicative pair activities that are all easy to use.
- ▶ The whole learning process encourages and inspires autonomous learning skills that will stay with young learners throughout the rest of their language studies.

Each rule of English grammar is introduced through a multi-panel illustrated dialogue. The dialogue is based on a real-world situation that young learners are familiar with.

Unit 2
Simple Present vs. Present Continuous
He is watering the plants.

Focus
Listen and repeat the dialogue.

What's Grandpa doing?
He's watering the plants.

Does he water the plants every day?
Yes, he waters them every morning and evening.

Give it a try
Listen and number.

Learn about it
We use the simple present for repeated actions and facts.
We use the present continuous for something that is happening right now.

Form	Simple Present	Present Continuous
Affirmatives	S + V (or V-s/-es)	S + is/am/are + V-ing
Negatives	He does not cook.	He is not cooking.
Questions	Does he cook?	Is he cooking?
Short Answers	Yes, he does / No, he doesn't.	Yes, he is / No, he isn't.

Write the do/es/ies forms and dig forms.

1. watch _____ 2. dance _____
3. watch _____ 4. drink _____
5. ride _____ 6. try _____
7. swim _____ 8. play _____
9. run _____ 10. study _____

Fill in the blanks with am, is, are, do, does, or doesn't.

- Do you like coffee?
- Alan swimming?
- Sue and Bill playing together?
- Your father ride his bike to work?
- You reading your e-mail?
- Mr. and Mrs. Bell go camping in the summer?
- I talking too much?
- Your cat like fish and milk?
- I can't find Tony. What he doing?
- What Eric usually do on the weekend?

Check it Done
Circle the correct answers to complete the paragraph.
It's 3 p.m. on Saturday afternoon. It's (rains / raining) outside.
It usually (rains / raining) in spring here. My sister is (playing / plays) the piano. She (has / is having) piano classes every week. She really (loving / loves) music. And my? I am (playing / play) my computer games. I never (play / playing) games during the week. My parents are not at home. They are (working / works). They usually (work / working) on weekends.

On Your Own
Read the paragraph again. Which sentences are in the simple present? Which sentences are in the present continuous? Check the correct boxes.

	Simple Present	Present Continuous	Simple Present	Present Continuous
1. Jimmy doesn't like football. He likes soccer.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	4. The baby sleeping. She's wide awake.	<input type="checkbox"/>
2. I making a cake. I am making bread.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	5. Tim and Kim fighting. They are just playing.	<input type="checkbox"/>
3. They walk to school. They always take the bus.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	6. My grandpa drink coffee. He only likes tea.	<input type="checkbox"/>
4. The baby sleeping. She's wide awake.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	7. You want another pizza? you full?	<input type="checkbox"/>
5. Tim and Kim fighting. They are just playing.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	8. You never call me. you love me?	<input type="checkbox"/>
6. My grandpa drink coffee. He only likes tea.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	9. Look at this kitten. It cute?	<input type="checkbox"/>
7. You want another pizza? you full?	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	10. Why does Eric have a toothache? he brush his teeth every day?	<input type="checkbox"/>

In Your Own Words
Work in pairs. Take turns making sentences with the names of your classmates and play single. Play two rounds.
Round 1: every day
Example: Mary jogs every day.
Round 2: right now
Example: Joseph is jogging right now.

Instead of providing grammar summaries at the end of the unit, young learners are asked to summarize and outline the grammar on their own.

After every five units, there is a review practice for students to do comprehensive exercises.

Review 1

1. Make sentences with the simple past.

- with / buy / I / my / cousin / .
- him / homework / finish / she / her / with / .
- themselves / room / clean / they / up / they / by / .
- mine / fish / your / eat / I / .
- neighbors / us / like / our / don't / .

2. Look at the pictures and answer the questions with complete sentences.

- Where was Dad at 5 p.m.?
- What was Dad doing?
- How much did Dad pay for the cake?
- What is everyone doing now?
- Who is going to cut the cake?

3. Complete the dialogue.

A: I (find/round) this wallet in the classroom today. Is it (your/yours)?
B: No, it isn't. (my/mine) wallet. Where (did/do) you find it?
A: It (was/is) under Tim's chair.
B: (Did/Will) you ask Tim? Maybe it is (him/his).
A: I did. I (ask/asked) (he/him) earlier, but he didn't (lose/lost) his wallet.
B: Sue (sit/sat) next to Tim. Maybe it is (her/hers).
A: She (didn't/won't) come to school this morning. It can't be (her/hers) wallet.
B: What are you going to (do/doing) then?
A: I think I (will/am going) take it to our teacher.
B: That's a good idea.

4. Fill in the blanks with the correct form of each verb.

Mom usually (buy) breakfast for us, but this morning she didn't (go) out. I (wake) up at seven o'clock, and Mom (be) already in the kitchen. At that time, she was (mix) some eggs in the bowl and (make) some soup on the stove. Everything (smell) really good. I really (enjoy) breakfast today. I never (cook) dinner or (make) breakfast, so I am going to (do) something special for Mom. I will (cook) dinner this Saturday night. I won't (ask) Mom for help. I am going to (make) spaghetti all by myself.

Experience the great vibes from the series!

Vibe is a three-level series that is designed to advance learners' listening abilities. It includes various listening practices and practical classroom activities to ensure that learners effectively build skills in listening and conversation. This series is designed for high school and college students, and it can be used independently or alongside other skills courses.

- ▶ To fully engage and motivate learners in the class, every book covers a wide range of topics and situations, from daily conversations to short speeches.
- ▶ To make learners understand natural English, there is a section providing colloquial terms to help them better understand daily conversations.
- ▶ "People in America" videos are selected from VOA (Voice of America) as extra learning material for students to get inspired.

A warm-up activity introduces learners into a unit's topic, and it can be used as icebreakers in their daily conversation.

UNIT 3 You Look Great!

Icebreaker
Are the words about clothing, height, hair, or body type? Write the words under the correct headings.

Clothing	Height	Hair	Body Type straight

Natural English
Another word for 'fashionable' is 'trendy'. It's something that is popular at the moment. It's 'in'. 'Fashion' means it is always in fashion.

Task 1 I Bought a Puppy!
Listen to the conversations and number the pictures. <3>

SPILLS Listening for Numbers
How much did each person pay for what they bought? Listen again and write the price of each item. <3>

Item	Price
1. The guitar
2. The running shoes
3. The smartphone
4. The perfume
5. The puppy
6. The bread

Task 2 You Got a Great Deal!
Dave and Jasmine are talking about their Christmas shopping. Listen to the conversation and circle the correct word to complete each sentence. <3>

SPILLS Listening for Comparisons
Listen again and check the correct boxes. <3>

Sentence	quicker	slower
1. Dave got his shopping done	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
2. Jasmine has	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
3. Jasmine's budget was	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
4. Dave bought	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
5. Dave paid	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

Did You Know?
In the conversation, Dave refers to 'dollars' as 'bucks'. The word 'bucks' also means a male deer. People use this word for money because deer skins used to be valuable and people would trade it for money.

There are three different kinds of listening tasks to complete in each unit, which aim to train learners' listening skills from different approaches.

After each unit, there is an additional classroom activity. It focuses on oral practice and is aimed at encouraging learners to apply the learned listening skills to speaking.

Let's Do It! Unit 13

A. Brainstorm some activities you might do at each time.

Pre Tip
Listen to the audio. Brainstorm ideas for each time. Write the ideas in the boxes. Don't forget to add 'usually' to the end of each sentence.

usually	usually	usually
at 8 a.m.	at 12 p.m.	at 2 p.m.
usually	usually	usually

Flow is a three-level reading series. Different types of appropriate and engrossing reading topics are collected in the series, including sports, pop culture, travel, nature, technology, and many more. It effectively helps learners sharpen their reading skills and the 4C skills through well-designed activities.

- ▶ Each unit includes two lessons, each containing a specific reading skill and vocabulary builder that help readers better understand a text and expand their vocabulary.
- ▶ The tasks and activities before and after each article are carefully designed to help learners improve their reading comprehension in general.
- ▶ The comprehensive 21st century activity at the end of each unit allows students to apply what they have learned and the 4C skills altogether.
- ▶ "People in America" videos are selected from VOA (Voice of America) as extra learning material for students to get inspired.

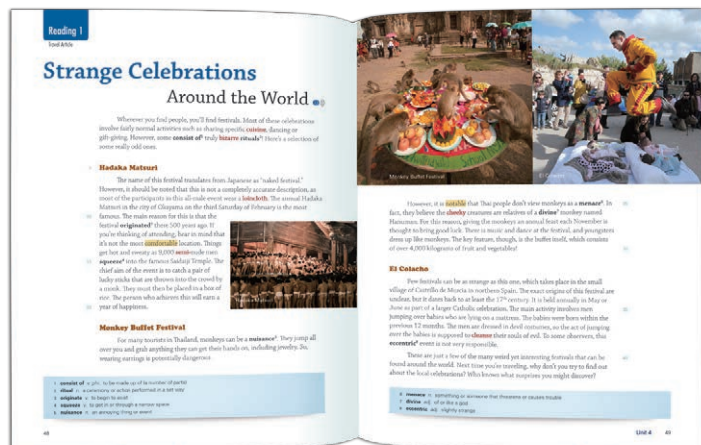

Flow Book 2

The Reading Skill part teaches skimming, scanning, etc. Task 1 helps readers practice the newly learned skill, and Task 2 allows readers to apply the skill to the upcoming reading.

Different types of readings lead readers to a wide range of modern topics and useful key words.

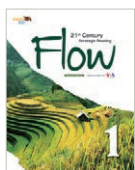

The post-reading exercise incorporates what students learn in the previous readings and the four 21st century learning skills: communication, collaboration, creativity, and critical thinking.

There are three kinds of highlighted vocabulary, helping readers expand their vocabulary.
