Description

Vibe 21st Century Strategic Listening is a three-level series that is designed to greatly improve learners' listening ability. The series covers a wide range of interesting topics, including entertainment, travel, sports and leisure, food, festivals, and hobbies and interests. There are also essential listening skills for learners to practice throughout the text, such as listening for gist, key words, details, making inferences, opinions, and certainty. Each book is packed full of engaging exercises and activities that learners of all levels will find useful.

See you then! Bye.

Who was that?

Nicholas Ings, that new customer I was telling you about.

I'm going to meet him on Wednesday at 1 p.m.

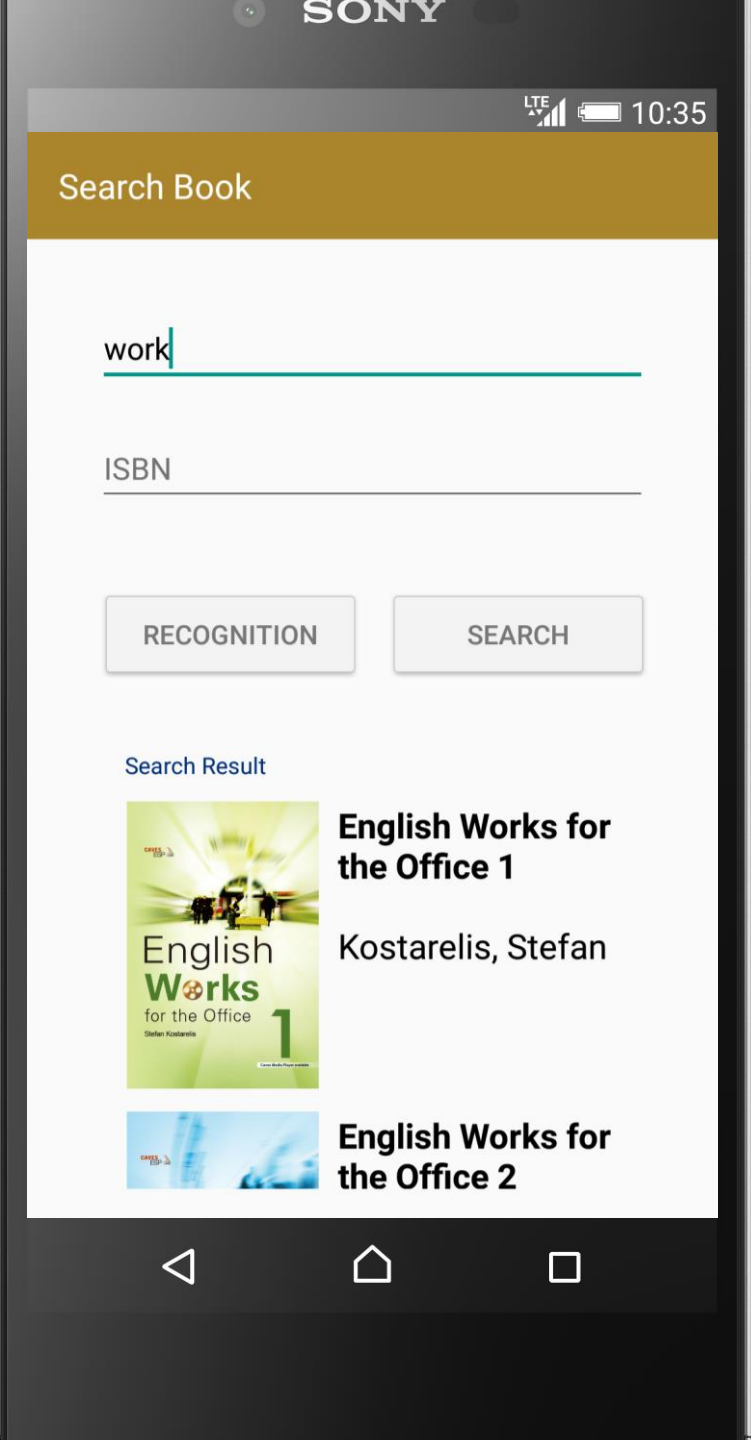

Hmm... I'm afraid you are going to have to reschedule.

We have that big presentation on Wednesday, remember?

Oh no! It totally slipped my mind. I'd better call him back.
